

in collaboration presents

DC Comprehensive Plan for Affordable Housing: How Clear is the Vision

Saturday, March 17, 2018 • 12pm - 2pm

Moderator:

Andrew Lightman, Managing Editor -
Capital Community News

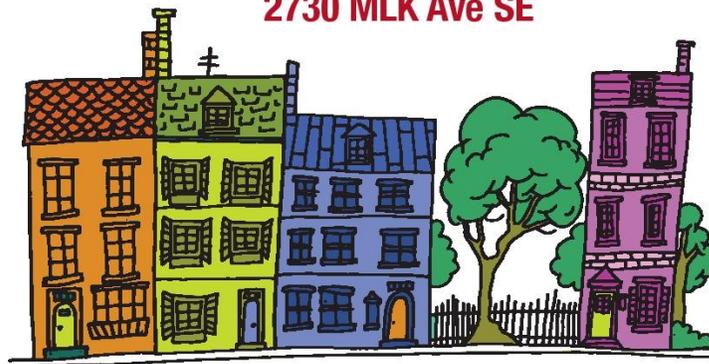

Invited Panelist:

DC Office of Planning
Empower DC
Greater Greater Washington
Stoop Law
United Planning Organization

Immediately following this activity will be Community or Chaos: An Poetry Reading and Open Mic. Come for the lyricism, stay for the free lunch!

R.I.S.E. Demonstration Center
2730 MLK Ave SE

For More Information:

Charles E. Wilson • Ward 8 Democrats President
charleswilsonhu@gmail.com or 202.834.0600

Ward8Dems.com

DC Comprehensive Plan on Affordable Housing: How Clear is the Vision?

A panel discussion on the District's long-term planning for affordable housing

Program Format

01

Opening Remarks
from Councilmember
Trayon White, Sr.

02

Moderator Overview

03

Introductions and Perspectives

04

Moderator-curated
Questions

05

Questions from the Audience

06

Conclusion

07

At 1:45 pm, the conversation will conclude and the
floor will be open for community
announcements

Trayon White, Sr.
Ward 8 Councilmember

Opening Remarks

Andrew Lightman
Managing Editor - Capital Community
News

Moderator

What is the DC Comprehensive Plan?

Parisa Norouzi
Executive Director of Empower DC

Panelist

Kay Pierson

Director, Community Reinvestment
Division at the United Planning Organization

Panelist

Eric D. Shaw

Director, DC Office of Planning

Panelist

Aristotle “Ari” Theresa, Esq.
Civil Rights attorney focusing on Zoning
and Administrative Law

Panelist

David Whitehead
Housing Program Organizer at Greater
Greater Washington

Panelist

